National SkillsUSA Guidelines for Management of Conference Delegation Conduct

It is the responsibility of the state association director to assure that each state registered conference attendee (student competitors, advisors, voting delegates, state officers and observers) is aware of the Code of Conduct, hotel courtesies, official SkillsUSA attire and conference program. It is also the responsibility of the state association director to ensure that all state registered conference attendees follow the rules established, attend all meetings and conduct themselves in a professional manner indicative of SkillsUSA standards. The state association director should establish a plan for ensuring the proper conduct of their state’s registered conference attendees and assign advisors, or responsible adult chaperones to monitor the involvement of registered conference attendees during the conference, attendance at meetings and general conduct. This should include orientation meetings with the states registered conference attendees periodically during the conference, room checks, hotel monitors, emergency procedures, reporting system to the state association director and disciplinary action to be taken in case of misconduct.

SkillsUSA and its state association have developed an excellent record of good conduct at national conferences over the years. This is primarily due to the enforcement of the Code of Conduct, the state association directors taking the important responsibility of orienting their state’s registered conference attendees and assisting other states as needed. This past record must be maintained, and the state association directors’ role in the conduct of the registered conference attendees is most important. If your state needs assistance in this area, the national staff is willing to discuss this with you to work out a plan. If a member of your states registered conference attendees violates the Code of Conduct, the following procedures should be followed:

1. The violation should be reported to a member of the national staff
2. Conference attendees violating the Code of Conduct will be referred to their state association director for appropriate action.
3. In the event the state association director requires assistance, a committee composed of national staff, board of directors will recommend action
4. A report of the situation and the action taken will be forwarded to the local school following the conference.

State associations will be directly responsible for the conduct of their registered conference attendees. The term “registered conference attendees” means any SkillsUSA member, including adults.
Delaware SkillsUSA requires each delegate attending to read, understand and sign the Code of Conduct Practices and Procedures. Return this form to the Chapter advisor prior to attendance at the SkillsUSA sponsored event.

- The term “delegate” shall mean any SkillsUSA member, including advisors, attending conferences.
- There shall be no defacing of public property. Any damage to any property, furnishing or facilities must be paid for by the individual or chapter responsible.
- Delegates must wear identification badges at all times.
- Delegates shall refrain from using inappropriate or profane language at all times.
- Delegates shall refrain from verbal or physical harassment, hazing or name-calling.
- Delegates shall respect the rights and safety of each other and guests.
- Delegates shall not possess alcoholic beverages, narcotics or weapons in any form at any time under any circumstances.
- Delegates shall refrain from gambling or games of chance for money or other things of value.
- Use of tobacco products by delegates is prohibited at all SkillsUSA functions.
- Delegates must adhere to the dress code at all times. Contest appropriate attire must be worn. In other instances, business casual attire is acceptable. Visit the national website for official attire guidelines.
  http://www.skillsusa.org/about/history-brand-resources/emblem-colors-and-official-attire/
- Delegates must dress and behave in a professional manner.
- Students shall keep their adult advisors informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times.
- No delegate shall leave the conference property without permission (except for authorized events) unless permission has been received from chapter and state/provincial advisors.
- Delegates should be prompt and prepared for all activities.
- Delegates should be financially prepared for all activities.
- Delegates are required to attend all sessions and activities assigned including workshops, competitive events, committee meetings, etc. for which they are registered unless engaged in some specific assignment scheduled at the same time.
- Delegates willfully ignoring or violating any of the above rules may subject their entire delegation to being unseated and their candidates or competitive events to being disqualified. Insurance

National SkillsUSA Insurance Coverage and Information

This section explains the basic insurance coverage included with the registration fee paid by a conference participant and how to go about filing a claim in case of an accident. NOTE: This is “secondary” coverage, which means claims will go to the primary carrier (if applicable) for payment first. Any treatment resulting from illness is not covered by SkillsUSA.

Insurance Claims

In cases where injuries resulting from an accident have been sustained during the dates of the NLSC, a medical claim form must be picked up at the SkillsUSA conference headquarters in East Wing, Room E1. This form should accompany the patient to the treatment center so the attending physician(s) can provide pertinent information related to the case. If a form cannot be completed at the time of treatment, then the information must be submitted at a later date (claim forms can be submitted up to 30 days following the incident.)

All medical claim forms for injury resulting from an accident should be completed and returned to the SkillsUSA conference headquarters during the NLSC or mailed to the SkillsUSA National Leadership Center in Leesburg, Va.
